

Build Your Jannah Series for Children

By: Sajid Umar

Practise Questions Episode 12: Fasting

Assalamu alaykum wa rahmatullahi wa barakatuhu means: peace be upon you and the mercy of Allah and His blessing. What do you reply? Wa 'alaykum ussalam wa rahmatullahi wa barakatuhu!

1. What does it mean when Allah says He revealed the Qur'an in Ramadan?
2. In how many stages was the Qur'an revealed?
3. What is Al-Lawh UI-Mahfudh?
4. What was the first thing Allah, subhanahu wa ta'ala, created and what did Allah tell it to do?
5. The Qur'an was revealed as one whole from where to where? And on which night?
6. What does Baytul 'Izza mean and where can it be found?
7. Is fasting a pillar of Islam?
8. When did fasting become compulsory?
9. How many Ramadans did the Prophet, salallahu 'alayhi wa sallam fast?
10. How did fasting in Ramadan become compulsory; in how many stages was fasting revealed?
11. Can you describe these 3 stages?
12. What is fasting?
13. Why did Allah command us to fast?
14. What is taqwa?
15. What is a barrier?
16. How do you build a barrier between yourself and the fire of Jahannam?
17. Can you name an example of staying away from something haram?
18. How does your 'barrier' or 'wall' become bigger and stronger?
19. Name two ways how fasting helps you get taqwa.
20. What happens to your connection with Jannah the more you love this world?
21. When you love Jannah more, you love less. [Fill in the blank]

22. What is greed? Can you name an example of being greedy?

Compiled by: Khawlah b. Yahya - www.sistersproject.co.uk